A screenshot of a Git commit merge interface. At the top, a dark grey header bar contains the text "Merge remote-tracking branch 'origin/master'" in white. Below this, the commit details are shown: a green robot icon, the name "Camiel de Hoogt", the commit hash "commit: be1c85", the author "authored 14-6-2017 @ 12:05", and the parent hash "parent: e6d346,80ac0c". A summary of changes is displayed: "9 modified" (with an orange icon), "1 added" (with a green icon), and "1 deleted" (with a red icon). Below this, a table lists the files changed. The table has two columns: "Name" with a small upward arrow, and "Full Path" with a hamburger menu icon. The files listed are: ".idea/workspace.xml" (orange icon), "dashboard/dashboard.php" (orange icon), "images/logout.png" (green icon), "menu_balk/menu.php" (orange icon), "menu_balk/style_menu.css" (orange icon), "style/berichten.css" (orange icon), "style/community.css" (orange icon), "style/profiel.css" (orange icon), "style/projecten.css" (orange icon), "style/style_menu.css" (red icon), and "style/styledashboard.css" (orange icon).
