PRESS RELEASES

ASML Extends Holistic Patterning Strategy with Cadence Partnership

February 28, 2017

San Jose, California, 28 February 2017 – ASML Holding NV (ASML) today announced a partnership with Cadence Design Systems, Inc. to expand the capabilities of its holistic lithography product portfolio, further streamlining chipmakers' process flow from design to mask production. The collaboration will bring together ASML's computational lithography solutions and the Cadence physical design back-end tools, leading to enhanced Design Technology Co-Optimization (DTCO) capabilities for advanced nodes, and other technologies.
